FCFP COVID-19 Message

For the protection of our team, colleagues and for the health of our community, the First Community Foundation Partnership of Pennsylvania (FCFP) is taking steps to prevent and contain the spread of COVID-19. Effective, Friday, March 20, FCFP has moved to complete remote operations through April 3. Any meetings currently scheduled with FCFP Staff will be rescheduled or held via alternative methods.

As this crisis continues to evolve, additional adjustments may be necessary. No matter where we are working, FCFP is committed to ensuring that our valued grantees, partners, donors, volunteers and community members continue to receive excellent service.

Our staff has diligently prepared to minimize any business disruptions and ask for patience with any potential delays. Please note that while Rider Park remains open to the public, all comfort facilities are closed. Further updates will be shared at www.fcfpartnership.org and on Facebook.

Our friends at the United Way are reminding the community of the important role that PA 2-1-1 plays during times of crisis. This free, confidential, 24-hour information and referral service connects Pennsylvanians to health and human service needs. While 9-1-1- is reserved for emergency services, 2-1-1 is the call to make for health, human services and disaster relief. If you are a service provider in the area, please contact 2-1-1 to update your hours, what your schedule looks like due to COVID-19 and other essential information that may help those in need. Contact Erin Ruhl, erinr@fcfpartnership.org if you need an update form. If you or someone you know has an unanticipated challenge during this unprecedented time, help can be accessed by dialing 211 or by texting your zip code to 898211.

Below is a quick contact list to stay engaged with Foundation staff. Perhaps the greatest power of a community foundation is its ability to make connections. Please stay connected with us in the weeks ahead. We remain committed to creating powerful communities through passionate giving®.

Sincerely,
Jennifer D. Wilson
