Nature Journaling

*Sunday, October 15th
2 p.m. – 4 p.m.*

Slow down, connect with the world around you. Learn to capture the essence of what you are observing through words and quick sketches.
Create your own journal entry with inspiration from Rider Park!

Observe and discuss examples of nature journals created by Donna Woodland, a Rider Park frequent visitor. She is preparing to hike the Appalachian Trail and is happy to share her unique way to capture her experiences. She has attended nature journaling workshops and is willing to share the essence of what she has learned.

We will meet at the picnic pavilion. Please bring your favorite writing or drawing supplies and a chair to observe the scenery.

Please call 570-321-1500 or email AmyP@fcfpartnership.org to register.
The event will be hosted rain or shine. Check @FCFPGives on Facebook for event updates.
An email will be sent prior to the event to registered guests.

Directions to the Park can be downloaded from our website.

SPOOKY WRITING AT RIDER PARK

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28TH

4 P.M. - 6 P.M.

Everyone loves the thrill of suspense. Discover how to weave a descriptive tale using the five senses. We will take inspiration from the beauty of Rider Park and the Halloween holiday. Phoebe Wagner, a local published author, will guide us through the creative process of showing versus telling.

Please call 570-321-1500 or email AmyP@fcfpartnership.org to register.
The event will be hosted rain or shine. We will meet at the picnic pavilion near the maintenance building.
Check @FCFPGives on Facebook for event updates.
An email will be sent to registered guests prior to the event with details of where to park.

Directions to the Park can be downloaded from our website.
